The VR4Empathy consortium invites you to participate in the international thematic and networking workshop on "Immersive Learning: connecting EdTech and Education "to be held online on 23 November 2026 from 18:00 – 20:00 (Brussels time).

As part of the European project VR4Empathy, the workshop aims to explore how schools and companies can cooperate, share the VR-based videos developed within the project and discuss the challenges, tips and benefits of using virtual reality in the classroom. Participants will also get a glimpse of where the XR industry is heading, take part in an interactive networking activity and learn how to join the VR4Empathy network.

This event is ideal for educators, EdTech innovators, researchers, and anyone passionate about leveraging technology for a more inclusive, effective and empathetic valuable exchange of ideas on shaping the future of educational VR.
Participation in the event is subject to prior registration by completing this form by 22 November 2026.
